

We Are Here For You

Please allow us to convey our deepest heartfelt sympathies for the pain you are feeling right now. We are so sorry for your loss.

We have certified Pet Loss Grief Specialists who are ready to help you through this most difficult time. These wonderful volunteers know the pain you are feeling and are ready to meet you where you are with a loving heart and time-tested coping skills.

There is no charge for the support we offer.

Our non-profit organization was founded in 1999 to create a place where you can share your story with others who are going through similar grief. We provide a safe place where you can find comfort knowing and feeling that you have support during this time.

Above all else, please remember you do not have to bear this burden alone.

We hope you will allow us the privilege of helping you.

The Association for Pet Loss and Bereavement (APLB) is a non-profit association of volunteers who are experienced and knowledgeable in the subject of pet loss and grief. Our chat room is free to all. We also offer an additional service, as a worldwide clearing house for information on pet bereavement. We regularly update the best sources of information and assistance available.

Our Board of Directors meets bi-monthly to pursue our goals and objectives as an association. If you become a member and are interested in becoming a volunteer serving on one of our many Committees, or the Board of Directors, please contact us at aplb.org/contact-us

Our beloved animal companions have brought us together, and in honor of them, we are here to provide our assistance to anyone who requests it.

The APLB is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) charitable organization.
